SKYLINER

THE SKYLINER

1964

No darkened walls
With ivy clad
Have harbored us these four years past,
These walls - still new,
With mortar wet -
Have made for us no haven fast,
Instead, our class,
In pristine halls,
Had time to think, had room to grow,
To try its wings,
Its muscles flex,
Inquiring, testing, so to know.

And now for us
The time has come
To meet the challenge, as we must,
With heads held high
In Falcon pride
We seek fulfilment of our trust,
We stand prepared
In Kentwood strength
To run the gauntlet to the end,
To honor country,
School, and God,
And make traditions none can bend.

KENTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN

IN DEDICATION

To Mr. Jack DeWaard, Our Principal —

As an administrator

he has commanded our deepest respect;

as a teacher,

our greatest admiration;

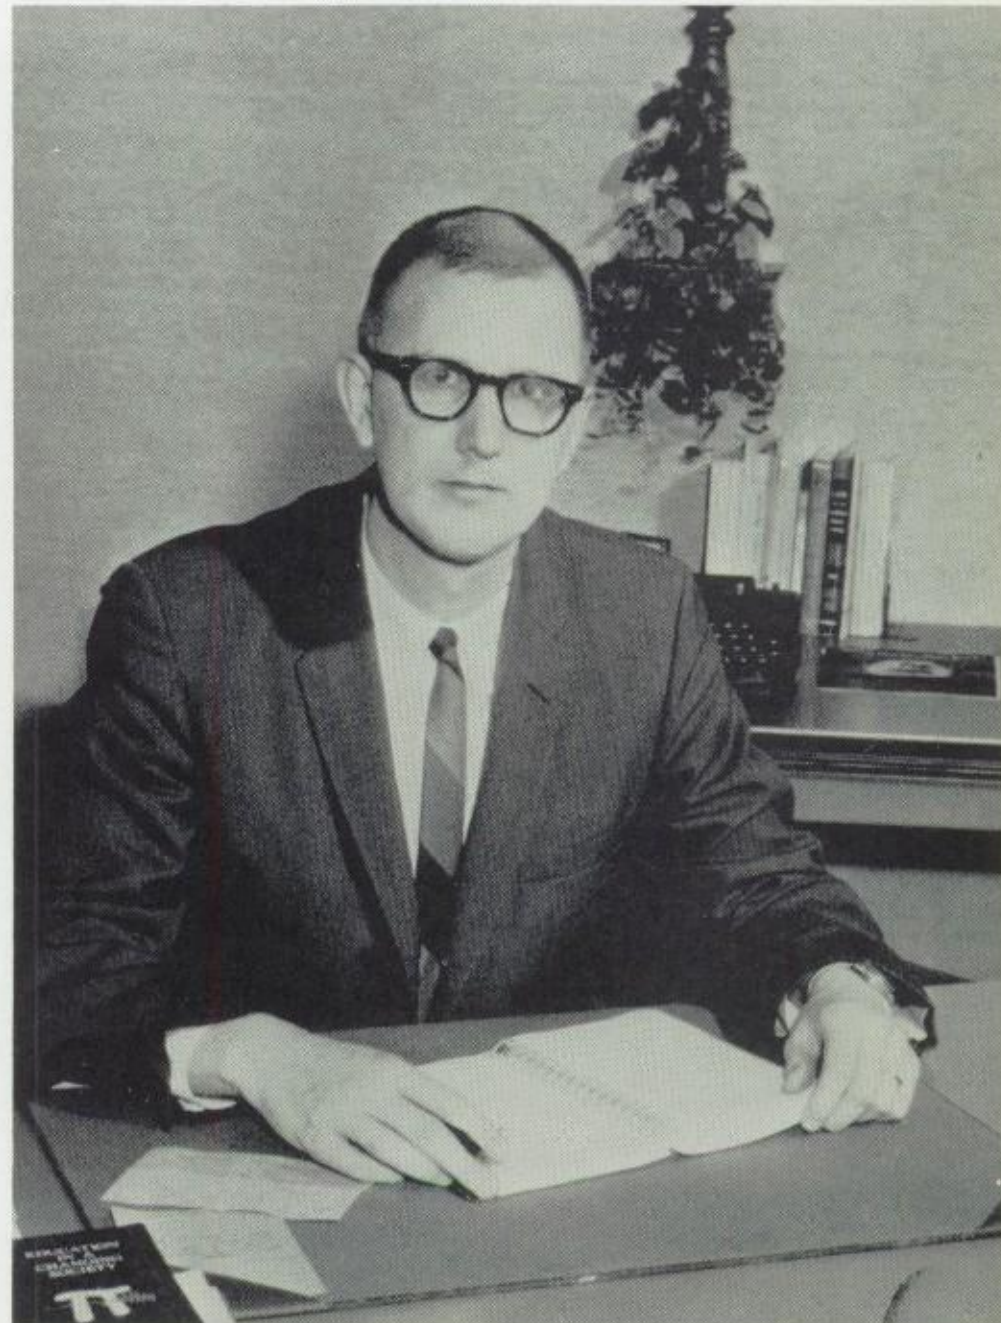

as an advisor,

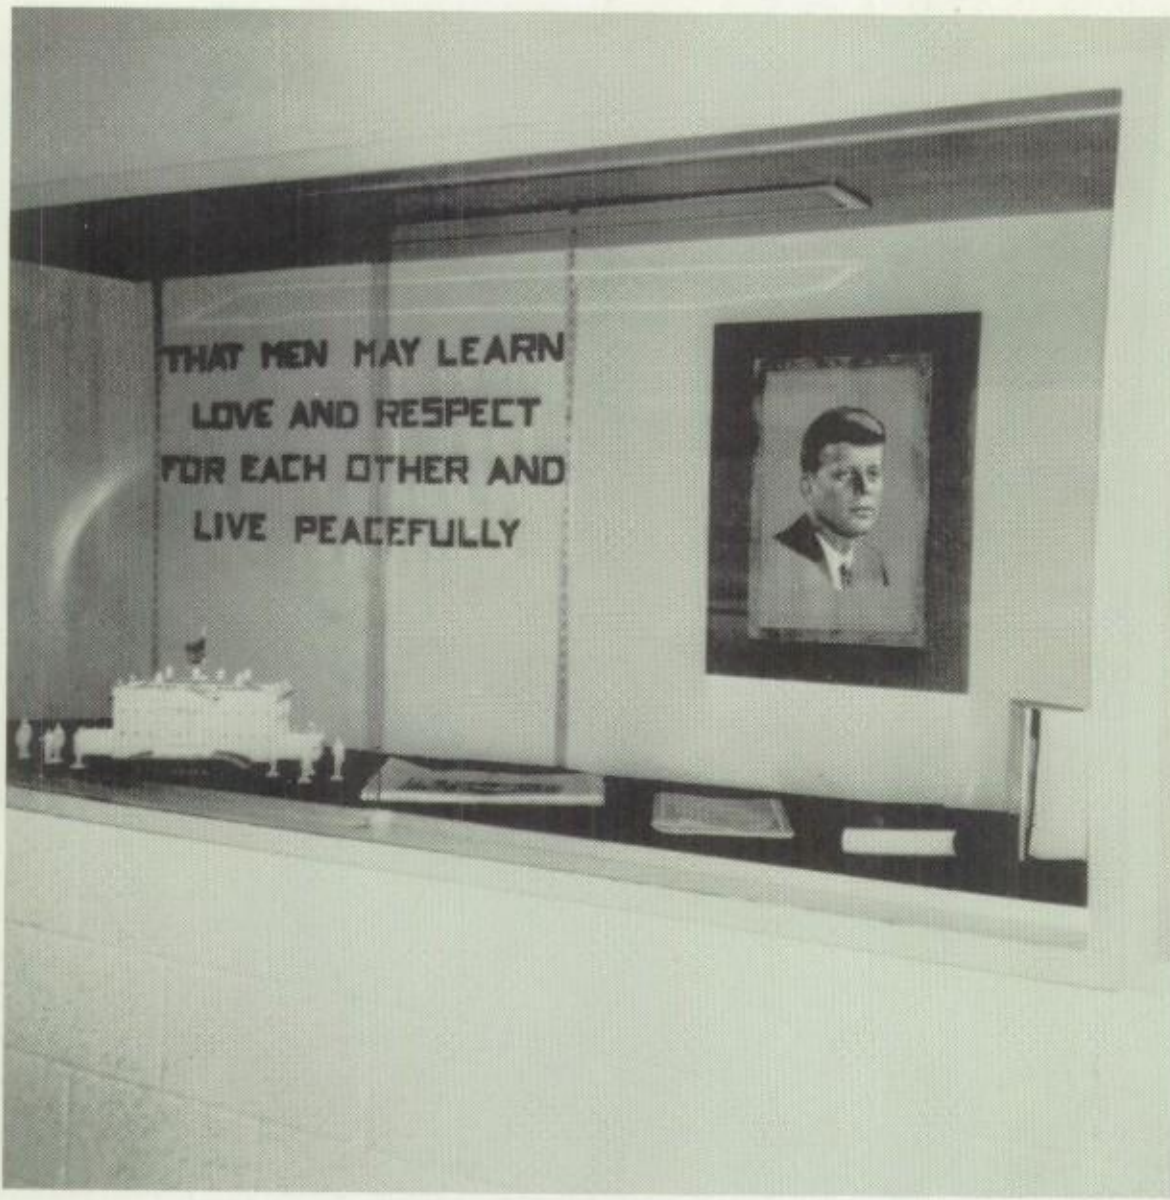

our highest esteem;

and as a friend,

our fondest affection.

To Mr. DeWaard, who has taught us the real meanings of "principle" and "principal," we, the class of 1964, do hereby dedicate this edition of the Skyliner with pride and love.

"Ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country."

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

May 29, 1917 — November 22, 1963

Thirty-fifth
President of the United States

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. HELEN HAYFORD

During this school year the students and faculty were stunned and saddened by the unexpected death of our good friend and devoted teacher, Mrs. Helen Hayford. Now, as we reflect upon the ideas she conveyed to us and the thoughts she evoked in us, we recall many things. Most vividly of all, we recall her ardent belief in the goodness of our country and her fervent faith in its future. She who loved the study of history so deeply has become, through the influence of her personality and her teaching, an inspiring part of Kentwood's history; we pause to remember.

Kentwood's Board of Education

Taking a moment away from the arduous task of administering the business of the Kentwood school district are: James Lowe, trustee; Gilbert Bowie, trustee; Robert De Zwaan, secretary; Clifford R. Barnes, president; Margaret Fowler, trustee; Robert Moon, trustee and Charles Grooters, treasurer.

Officers of the board, Mr. De Zwaan, Mr. Barnes, and Mr. Grooters seem rather pleased with this report. (Could they be planning our swimming pool?)

"A likely story!"

Notre Dame
M.A., University of Notre Dame

Although Mr. Reilly must mete out punishment, he is known for tempering his justice with mercy. As sponsor of the Student Council he keeps his finger on the pulse of the student body and from his findings is almost always able to write the proper prescription.

Perfect attendance? Perfect behavior? Well, of course, Mr. Reilly!

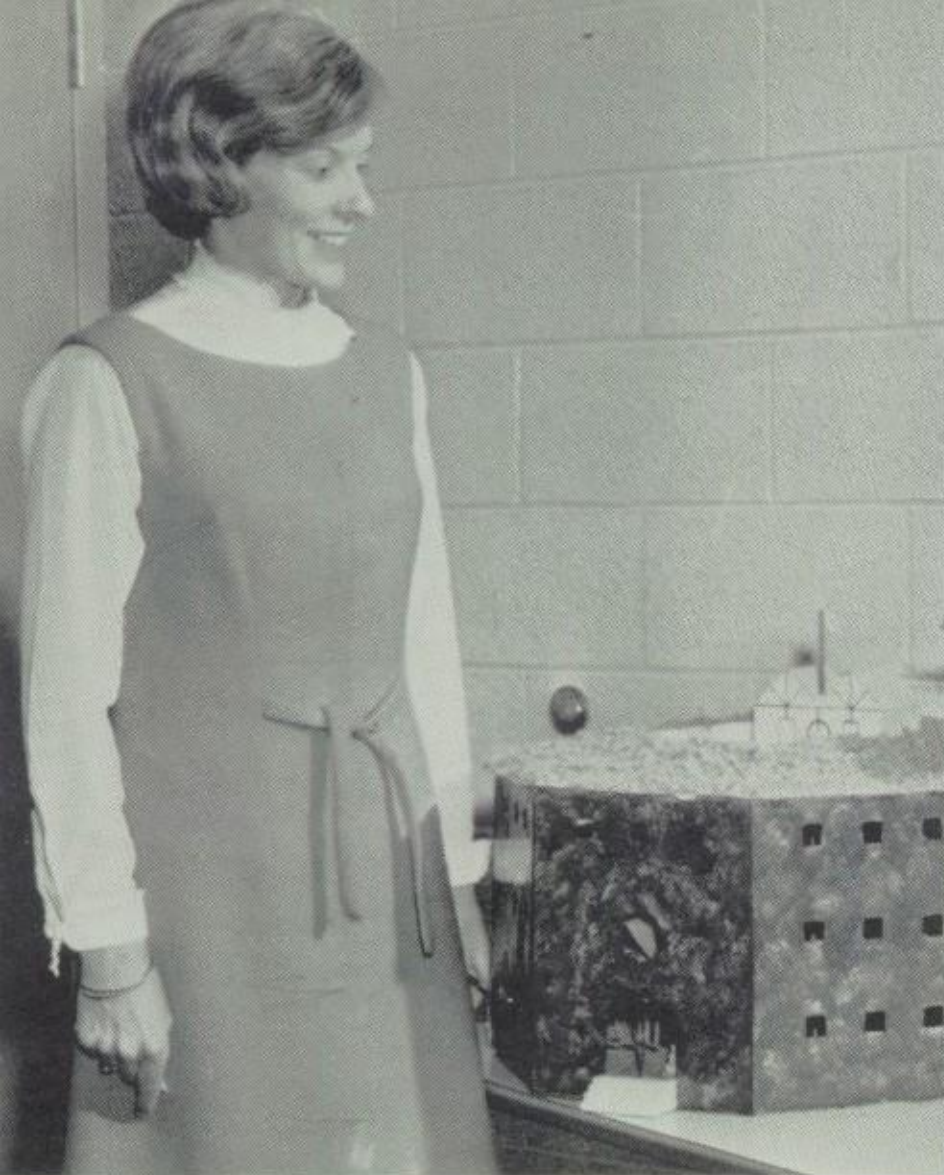

FACULTY

Combining a wry sense of humor with a wealth of knowledge, Mr. Paul Kempter has succeeded in brightening many a day at Kentwood. As librarian and teacher, he is always eager to help any student who desires to read and learn. As a philosopher, he has a fund of ideas and theories stored away that he reveals at opportune moments. But it is as a friend that he is best loved by the students and teachers alike.

Mrs. Doris Fleaser, Guidance Department secretary, in addition to keeping records, conferences, and students, straight, keeps track of funds for various activities. That is her regular work - who can attempt to enumerate her other jobs?

"May I have your attention, please?"

Mrs. Jane Allen, secretary to Mr. De Waard, has a variety of duties. She keeps faculty and students informed via the P. A., is a marvelous source of all sorts of help and from time to time provides a handy shoulder for weeping on.

Mrs. Marian Selleck, secretary to Mr. Reilly, also helps Mr. Kempter. She gives aid, comfort or reprimand as students need each. Teachers in a rush are grateful for her help on the ditto.

"You can live without poetry, music, and books
But civilized man cannot live without cooks."

Aren't we lucky to have head cook, Mrs. Viola Lee, and her able assistants, Mrs. Betty Longbooke, Mrs. Evelyn Zomer, Mrs. Ilene Zimmermans and Mrs. Florence Winkle?

P A R I S U N D E R T H E S T A R S

We, the Seniors, would like to thank the Juniors for giving us such a lovely prom. We all enjoyed an evening of elegance we will never forget. It couldn't have been more perfect.

The Fall Play, "Mother is a Freshman," was presented on November 15 and 16 with Diane Posthumus playing the lead role.

Our Stage - a memorable spot for many Kentwoodites.

That professional touch was brought into Kentwood's drama life by Mrs. MacKinnon.

Diane also captured the lead - and her audience - in the Spring Play, "Kind Lady," presented May 1 and 2.

As a result of the combined efforts of Mr. Nieboer and Vicki Sanders, Kentwood's 2nd annual Khoral Kapers was a huge success. Mr. Poll, a member of the teachers' chorus line, is pictured above with costume chairman, Penny Allen, and Vicki Sanders.

Future Teachers

FTA members, planning for actual teaching in future years, attended workshops at Western Michigan University and Ridgeview Junior High School. They also raised money for their scholarship fund for needy students who plan to be teachers.

Standing: Judy Gietzen (president), Mike Travis (vice-president), Tom Stortbaum (treasurer), Marge DeBlaay, Karen Sanders, Paula McClure, Bonnie Nelson, Mr. Van Popering (advisor). Sitting: Mary Ortiz, Roberta DeGand, Sue Baweja, Jeanette Sullivan, Marilyn Acton, Linda Pirkola. Absent: Nancy Sytsma, Betsy Sanders (secretary).

Future Homemakers

The FHA has been active selling cookbooks again to raise money for their many expenses. They also had speakers on various phases of home economics.

Standing: Janice Osterink, Marge DeBlaay, Judy Gietzen (secretary). Sitting: Roberta DeGand, Sandy Dood (vice-president), Mary Ortiz.

As Sandy Robinson and Janet Schreiber (president) read recipes, Candy Hoorn, Sue Cotton, and Linda Cain listen with interest.

The induction ceremony of '64.

The lure of antiquity and classicism draws Kentwood students to the study of Latin. To help give life to the Latin Club activities, members participate in many affairs that preserve the ancient rites. This year Kentwood joined the Junior Classical League, a national organization of Greek and Latin students. In November the club held a candy sale, and also held the formal induction ceremonies into the J.C.L. In the spring, the Latin students staged a Latin week, concluding with a Roman banquet.

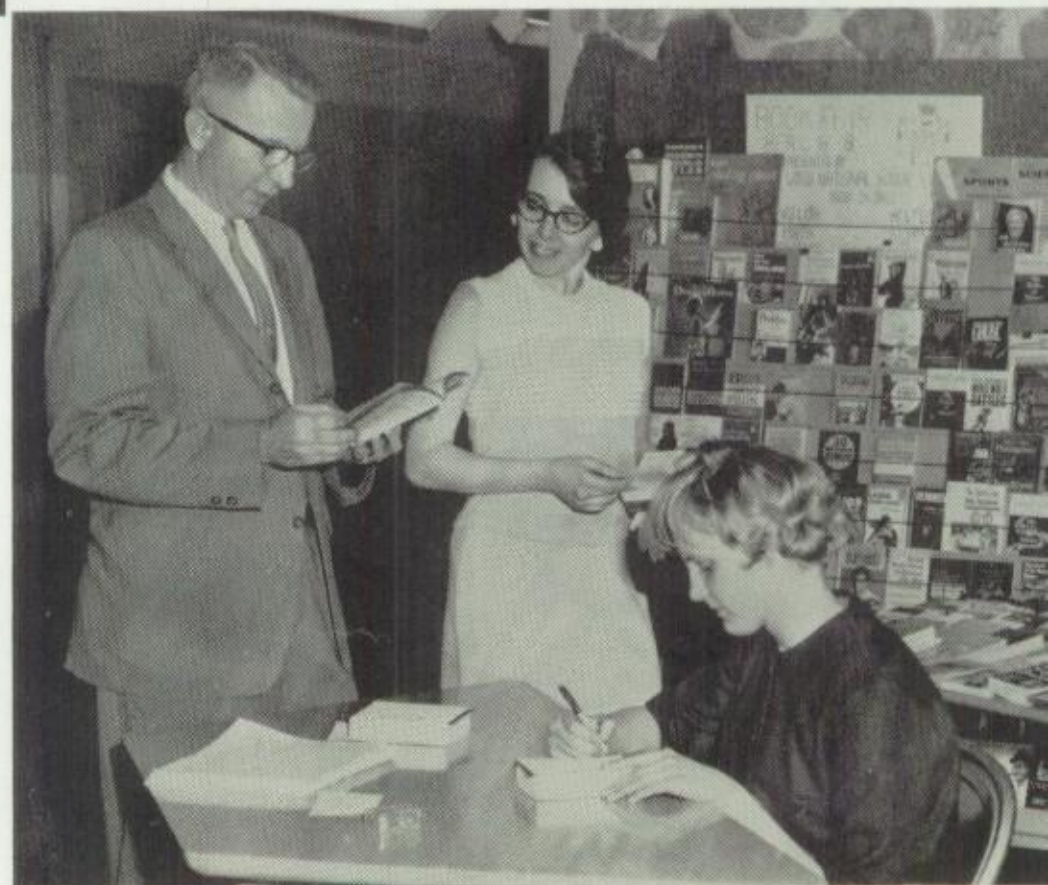

Rev. Martin Brauer addresses new members at induction.

National Honor Society

Jan Hendricks, Sue Bishop, and Miriam Johnson work on Honor Rolls. Honor society members arrange names and pictures of people who have achieved "A" Honor Roll standing each marking period, and place them on display in the south corridor.

National Honor Society book fair during the Fine Arts Festival was one means of financing a $25 scholarship. The society plans to award a scholarship each year to the senior deemed most deserving - for qualities of scholarship and leadership. Rev. J. M. Vanden Bosch purchases a book from Barbara Ondersma as Mrs. Vanden Bosch looks on.

Gathered for a meeting are Honor Society members, probationary members, and co-sponsors Mr. Dallas Hunt and Mrs. Betty Vanden Bosch.

Art Club

Junior High art lovers this year banded together in a club, sponsored by Mr. David. Members did original art work, in various media, studied the masters and had fun.

Horizon Club

Miss Young, Horizon Club sponsor, accepts a cup of tea from Miriam Johnson, club secretary. Jan Hendricks, president, Margaret Gillisen, treasurer and Janet Tissot, vice-president, check on the procedure.

Horizon Club girls made Christmas stockings for Santa Claus Girls, visited elderly shut-ins, and in general performed works of charity.

Humanities Club

Devoted to the study and the advancement of the humanities - art, literature, music, drama, and philosophy - the club has traced the cultures of the world, beginning with the Golden Age of Greece and proceeding through the centuries to the present day.

The Thespian Club has been actively engaged this year in presenting two plays and working on numerous projects. Many members also participated in skits, melodramas, and the spring show, Koral Kapers. Officers of the club were: President, Diane Posthumus; Vice-President, Karen Sanders; Secretary, Vicki Sanders; Treasurer, Janet Tissot.

President Jerry Van Kuren, secretary Brian Grawburg, treasurer Rob Carrowitz, join other members of the Key Club in displaying the symbols of the organization. Key activities this year were: securing 21 trees for the school yard; co-sponsoring of the state convention; helping South Kent Kiwanis in Kids Day; preparing food baskets and turkey for the poor at Thanksgiving; acting as proctors for science fair; selling youth day newspapers; donating money to Santa Claus Girls, and taking part in the exchange program.

Key Club

Club members bid good-bye to Ron Viestenz and Rob Carrowitz as they embark for their Canadian trip.

Phil Bisbee, secretary, Rob Carrowitz, treasurer, and Ron Viestenz, president, consider just how they will use the paddle.

Initiation ceremonies for 15 new members brought total active membership to 34.

Varsity Club

Projects of the club to help attain their goal of a new whirlpool for the athletic department were advertising for the football and basketball programs, the varsity-faculty basketball game, and the pancake supper. They also cooperated with the Boosters Club on a charcoal sale.

Treasurer, Paul Sweet

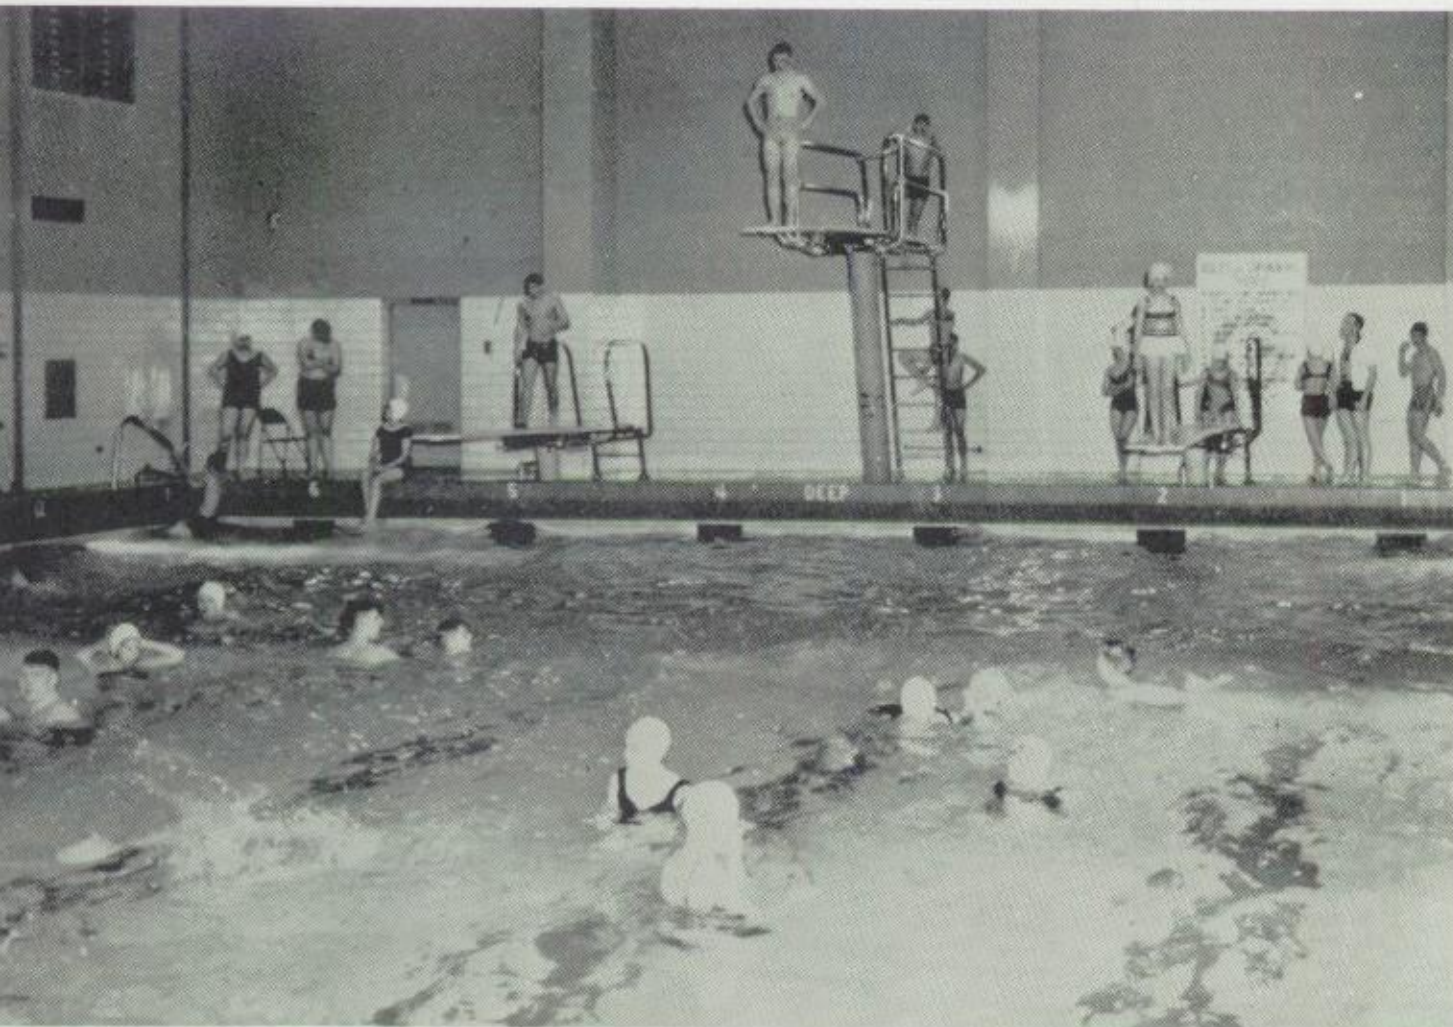

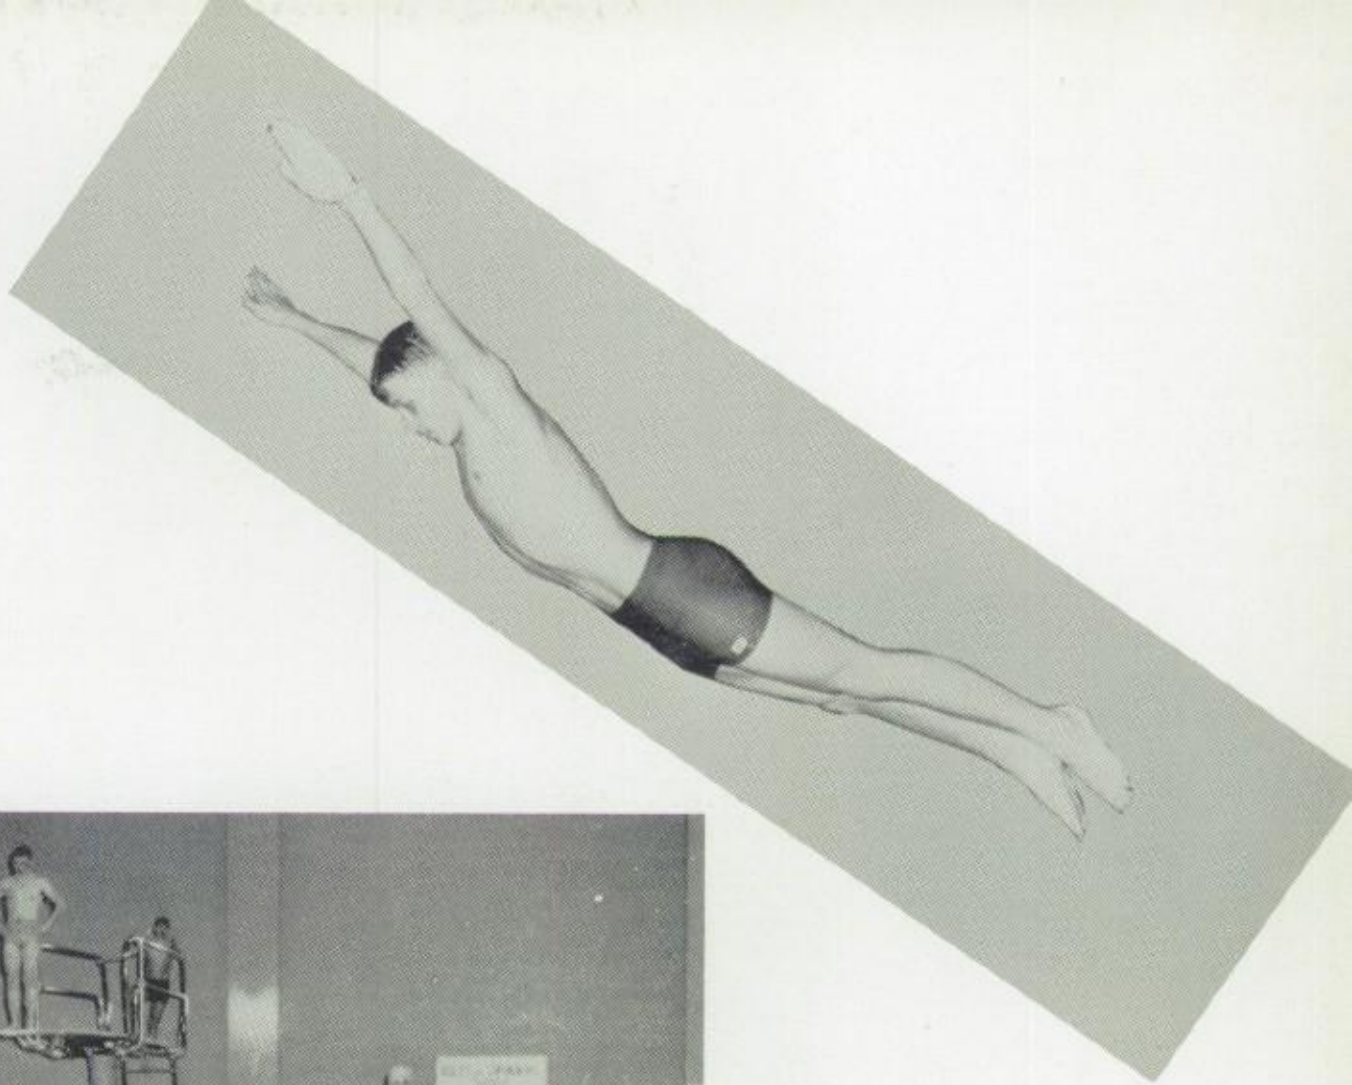

A group of early risers, the World Travel Club meets for breakfast once a month to experience vicarious travel through movies, slides, and talks. Mrs. Hayford started the organization. Since her untimely death last February, Mr. Noteboom has lent his guidance.

Pep Club

To further school spirit and generally promote enthusiasm for sport activity, Pep Club members put on skits, sold pop corn and provided refreshments on occasion. Club officers are: Joan Packer, president; Carolyn Dow, secretary and recorder; and Virginia Jaimison, assistant recorder.

Swim Club

Swan, jack-knife, cannonball, one and a half - Swim Club members glory in them all. Twice monthly Mr. Poll and his hearty mer-people practice dives, strokes and water safety techniques at Godwin pool.

Debaters, coached by Mr. Weykamp, took part in ten debates. In the regional tournament Kentwood won one and lost two. The topic for debate was "There should be complete medical care for all citizens at public expense."

Debate

Debaters are required to take, alternately, negative and affirmative sides. Here they bone up on rebuttals.

Forensics

Active in Forensics were: Bill Papke, Harold Friedl, Karen Sanders, Ken Zick, Karen Foster, Sue Batchelder, Sally Barrett, and Mr. Weykamp (advisor).

Kentwood was host school for the District 4, Region G Forensic contest this year. The schools participating in the meet were Wyoming, Ionia, Forest Hills and Kentwood. The different fields entered were declamation, interpretative reading, original oratory, humorous reading, and extemporaneous speaking.

Mr. Weykamp, forensics advisor, was also district chairman for the association.

Kentwood participants were Ken Zick, declamation; Karen Sanders and Karen Foster, interpretative reading; Bill Papke, original oratory; Sue Batchelder and Sally Barrett, humorous reading. Kentwood took two firsts in this forensics meet.

Falcon's View Staff

Literary staff at work: As Ron See and Tom Genson read copy, Jan Henricks, Karen Sanders, and Mary Ellen Scalley begin layout.

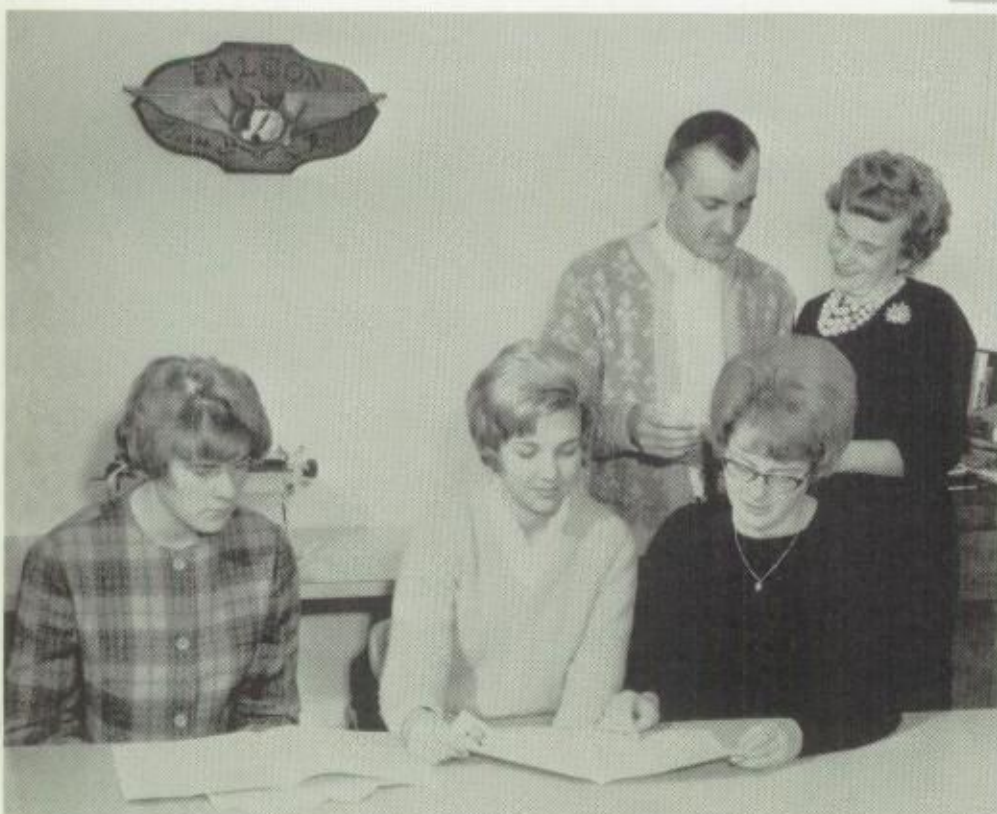

The deadline approaches and all reporters hurry to turn in their articles. FRONT: Frank Merlotti, Kathy Sweet, Janis Garvey, Janice Tyler, Margaret Gillison, Jerry Van Kuiken. BACK: Don Schultz, Tom Genson, Walt Earl, Vicki Sanders, Janet Tissot.

Vital expression of student opinion characterized the Falcon's View this year. Under the capable editorship of Jan Hendricks, the newspaper covered the news of the school and community. Despite a mid-year financial problem, the presses continued to roll; student support was evident in increased sales. The Falcon's View sponsored a doughnut sale and also co-sponsored the Last Chance Dance. It was an active and productive year for the entire staff.

Jil Peitrczyk, advertising manager, reports on finances to Ron See, business manager.

Karen Sanders, news editor, Mary Hodges, feature editor, and Jan Henricks, editor-in-chief, read lead articles as Mrs. Drumm, advisor, checks sports page with Ron See, sports editor.

Skyliner Staff

Brian Grawburg, photographer, receives instructions from advisor, Mrs. Drumm, as the rest of the crew listens in.

Linda Davenport reads copy to typist Mary Ellen Scalley as other workers check prints and subscriptions.

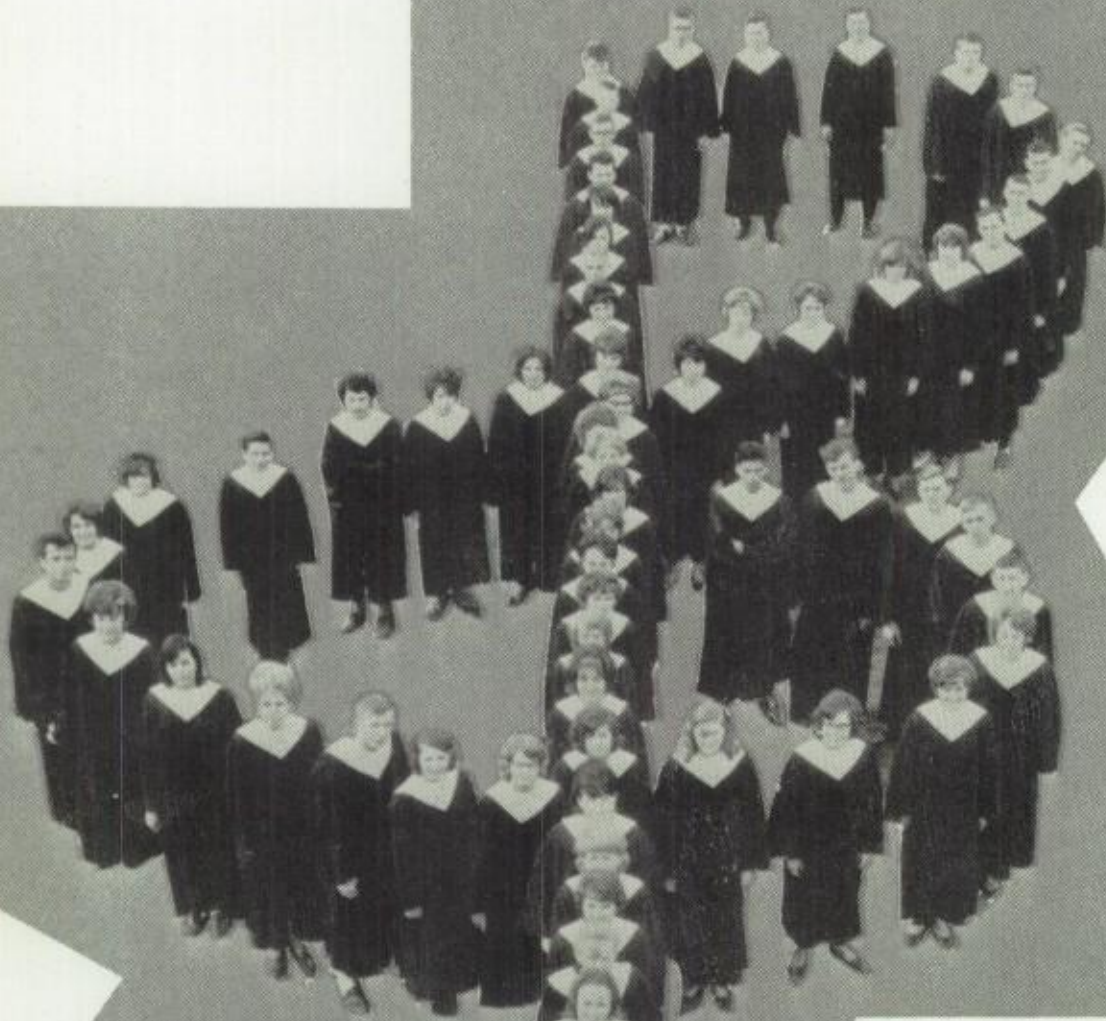

Working on the Skyliner this year proved an exciting, exhilarating, and exhausting, experience for the staff. Administration, faculty, and students alike cooperated in a second picture-taking effort when the first set of student photos flubbed. Yearbook sales, limited to two three-day campaigns, boomed. For lag-gard students, the staff co-sponsored the Last Chance Dance as an added spur to prospective purchasers.

Co-editors Marge DeBlaay and Thelma Hoogerhyde map campaign for various areas of yearbook activity in production and sales, for editors Judy Gietzen (faculty), Karen Sanders (copy), Vicki Sanders (business manager, Sue Bishop (art), Paula McClure (activities), Roberta DeGand (advertising manager), Mary Ellen Scalley (underclassmen), Ada Wiering (senior class), Dave Jones (sports), and Ingeborg Marten (organizations).

The 1963 Kentwood varsity football campaign found us short in the win column but long in experiences. It was a season of ups and downs, new offenses, displays of a strong defense, breaks going the wrong way, and definite loyalty and courage on the part of all who stuck it out. It is easy to be a winner but hard to be a loser; yet even in losing, certain values can be attained. Returning to the squad next fall and bringing with them these experiences, are twenty-one lettermen. There is only one way to go - UP!

The J.V. Football team had Kentwood's first championship within its grasp, but lost it in the final game of the season. The Key to the J.V.'s final finish of second place was its alert defense and solid offense.

A final record of 5 wins and 2 losses indicates that, with a year's seasoning, these men should add invaluable strength to the 1964 Varsity squad.

Varsity cheerleaders boost J.V. spirit.

The freshmen put forth great effort and came up with a 2-win, 3-loss, and 1-tie season. Every member of the freshman squad gave a 100% performance and, with a little more experience, they will develop into a solid nucleus for future Kentwood teams.

Large crowds indicate school spirit.

A final record of 5 wins and 3 losses left the Cross Country team in a tie for second place with Rogers. In the league meet, the harriers of Kentwood lost to Rogers; thus putting themselves back into third - a position which they've held for two years. The Falcons finest race came in the regional meet where they placed second, entitling them to enter the state meet. There the Falcons finished tenth in the entire state.

Varsity Basketball

Plagued by lack of height and speed, the Falcons suffered through a 1 win, 17 loss season, their only win coming at the expense of Northview in the district tournament. Hope for next year's team is high, for only five varsity members were lost through graduation.

One of the highlights of the '64 season was Kentwood's win against Northview. In this game sophomore Mike Curran set a new single game scoring record of 31 points - topping the old record by one point.

Dood goes high for a shot against Byron Center.

A lack of height and the loss of four sophomores to the varsity plagued the J.V. squad and left them winless in the league.

Even though the season was quite disheartening, the J.V.'s came back at the end of their schedule and gave many Kentwood fans plenty of thrills in their closest game - a 78-77 loss to Wyoming.

Tomorrow's

ROW I: R. Johnson, E. Hamilton, H. Moon, G. Gillissen, B. Kittle, R. St. Onge. ROW II: C. Harris, B. Glupker, L. Wagner, B. Crowe, S. Barnes, K. Zwiers, D. Cook, Coach Stankey.

The "frosh" utilizing their height and good scoring potential, put together an impressive 13 win - 4 loss season. Their season was highlighted by scoring 94 points against Caledonia, thus setting a new Kentwood scoring record.

ROW I: J. Hoffius, F. Merlotti, J. Grooters, C. Black, T. DeZwaan, K. Questad, S. Erickson, M. Lenartz.
ROW II: G. Black, L. Figney, B. Van Tuinen, J. Ward, B. VanderLind, D. Webb, D. Cutler, Coach Blackmer.

Varsity

Under the direction of coach Blackmer, the eighth graders got together and came up with a winning season. The key word to their success was DESIRE. These boys had the desire to work, the desire to learn, and the desire to play, which stood them in good stead.

Stress placed on basketball's basic fundamentals and a strong desire to win helped pace the seventh grade team to a winning, 5 win - 3 loss, season.

ROW I: D. Looman, G. Gathercole, J. Clayton, S. Meade, J. Blouw, M. Bottum, T. Looman, B. Loew. ROW II: T. Fletcher, mgr., G. Frankforter, J. Kelsey, B. Dykhuis, D. Korf, P. Systma, J. Chivis, J. Van Dam, D. Vollette, Coach Berles.

Strong players such as Doug Korf and John Chivis, make this Kentwood team a power to be contended with in their varsity years.

Varsity Track

Co-captain Sheldon measures the distance---

Although it was a young team, the track squad compiled a four win, five loss season and gained valuable experience in varsity competition.

Coach Patterson was quite pleased with the individual as well as group performances which helped pace the team to sixth in the conference and ninth in the regionals.

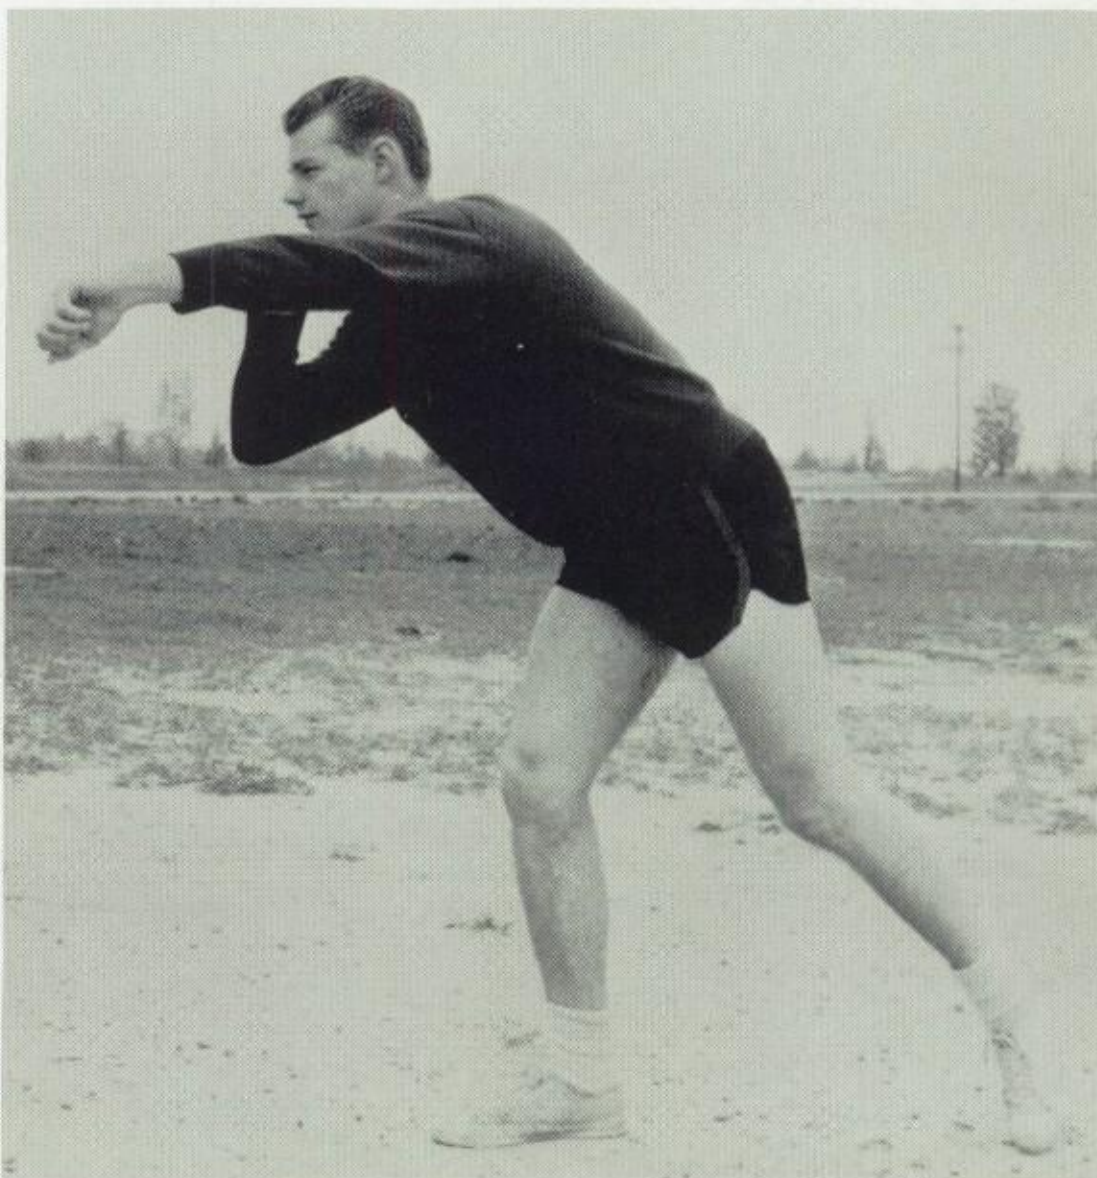

then up-and-over.

Ted Christman, the other Kentwood co-captain, was an outstanding point-getter for the Falcons. His longest leap of the year was 19'11 3/4" thus setting a new school record. This leap was also good enough for a first in the conference meet and a trip to the state track meet.

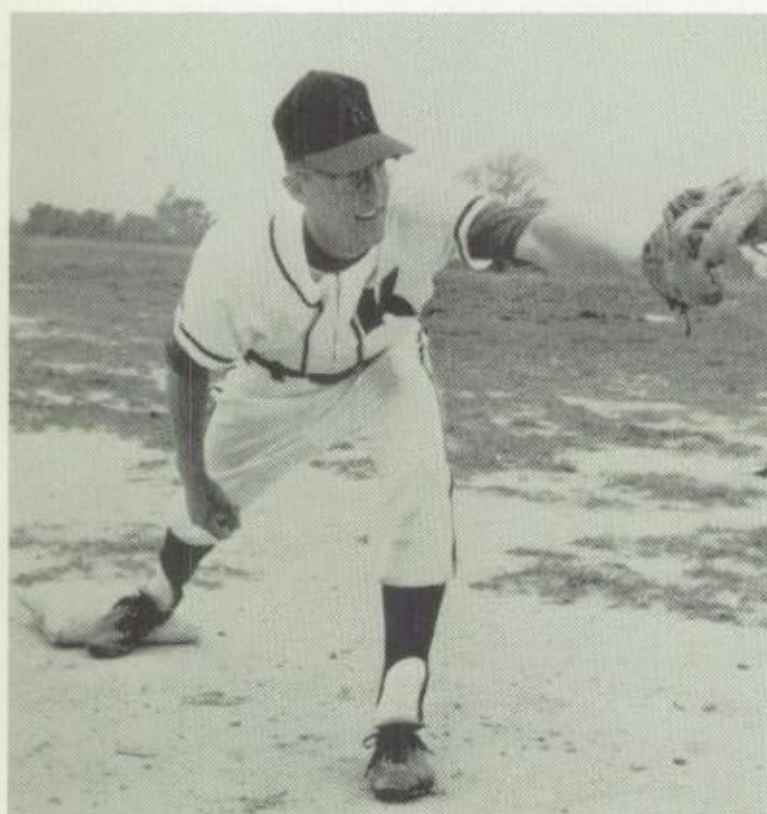

Sophomore Dan Quist is another valuable asset to the Kentwood team. In his first year of varsity competition, he was never beaten in the conference. His longest toss of the year was 49' 3", establishing a new Kentwood mark, and just missing the conference mark by a few inches.

Varsity Baseball

ROW I: B. Borst, R. Crowe, Brian Hoorn, G. Cook, Bruce Hoorn, R. Johnson, D. Gates, W. Allen. ROW II: Coach Stankey, C. Averill, L. Heyboer, J. Rossback, D. Olthouse, B. Shear, D. Johnson, F. Salamone.

Olthouse makes a big stretch on a close play at first.

Youth again marked another Kentwood sport. The team led by junior Craig Averill's .380 batting average, went on to compile a seven win - ten loss season. Only five seniors will be lost through graduation, so the team's strength should not be hurt seriously.

To highlight the season two seniors, Dave Olthouse and Les Heyboer, were both elected to the Ottawa-Kent Conference All-Star Team, and Les was honored further by being selected to the O.K. Conference Team.

Craig Averill, Jim Rossback and Brian Hoorn loosen up their pitching arms before the game.

ROW I: J. Madden, R. Bonzheim, B. Kittle, C. Warner, C. Olthouse, T. Frazine. ROW II: Coach Allison, G. Bottomley, D. Kuyt, I. Sarver, M. Sipple, K. Zwiers, C. Harris, D. Wagner.

J. V. Baseball

Under Mr. Allison's coaching the junior varsity baseball team put together a good season. Valuable experience was gained which will come in handy next year as many of them will rise to the varsity level.

Since key positions will be vacated by graduating seniors, we are expecting some of the junior varsity players to fill these important gaps.

A quick game of "pepper" before game time keeps the team loose.

Tennis Team

In winning four matches out of ten the 1964 "racqueteers" displayed great interest, exhibited speed, agility, and determination to stave off their opponents. With Mr. Berles, with instructions, and with confidence bred by ability, the team came on strong and finished fourth in the regional tournament. The team, composed primarily of underclassmen, should do even better next year.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Lively, peppy, and vivacious are only a few of the words that describe the Falcon cheerleaders. When team and school spirit hit low spots, the cheerleaders, under the direction of Miss Jeltres, came through with new yells, new chants, and new slogans that brought spirit and attendance up to a new high.

The junior editions of the varsity cheerleading squad, also did a very fine job this year. Their season, as was the varsity's, was highlighted by new uniforms. More, too, spirit was high. This factor alone led to increased attendance at both freshman and junior varsity games.

"On Graduation Day we'll shout Hurray!!

This is the slumber party that was!

Just how high should a Kentwood senior hold her head?

Nobody's gonna cry when they call us "Silo High"!

This march began more than twelve years ago.

Mr. DeWaard beams as Mr. Barnes presents the coveted sheepskin.

Ave atque vale - four years that fled too fast though they began so long ago. Salutatorian Bill Papke tries out the microphone while Co-Valedictorians Thelma Hoogerhyde and Miriam Johnson await their turn.

Seniors think long thoughts in the hush that came just before the Baccalaureate Address.

REGINE MARGRIT VOSS

Reggie Voss, our first exchange student, became so much a part of Kentwood life that we almost forgot that she came from far-away Germany and that one day she would have to leave us and return to her homeland.

Now, regretfully for us, the time has come. We will miss you, Reggie, and we hope you will remember us.

We, your classmates, wish you Godspeed on your journey and all that is good for all of your life!

Girls why not investigate the Telephone Company for a permanent job?
